To organise and build a virtual, European-scale network of existing institutional repositories.

To assess and implement state-of-the-art technology to manage the repositories as one large scale virtual content resource.

To assess and implement a number of fundamental user services.

To identify, implement and promote a relevant set of standards.

To prepare future expansion and upgrade the digital repository infrastructure across Europe and to ensure the widest possible user involvement.

www.driver-support.eu

driver
digital repository infrastructure vision for european research